From the Pastor's Heart

I am writing this article on Monday morning. All is quiet now around the church—a far cry from this time last week. Last Monday our buildings were filled with 99 children singing their hearts out! But today, all is quiet.

However, earlier this morning was a different story. At 6 AM our parking lot became the center of a lot of focused activity as our youth loaded the bus to head for mission camp in Nashville, Tennessee. They will return on Saturday evening. Before entering the bus we held hands and formed a large circle to pray. I prayed for our youth to be kept safe and for their parents not to be anxious while they were away. I prayed for wisdom and energy for our four chaperons and I prayed that God would accomplished much through them and in them this week.

In the quietness of this morning, I have realized afresh how much God has blessed our church family by sending Carson and Jennifer Britt our way. Think about some of the things Carson is responsible for.

There is the Sanctuary Choir—they love him. He helps me a great deal in planning worship and in leading worship. There is the children's ministry: Children's Music Camp, VBS, and he lends Raina a hand occasionally with the Children's Weekday Ministry as well. The children love him too! There is our youth ministry: Bible studies on Tuesday nights during the summer, Sunday School, Discipleship Now, M-Fuge Camp, Yak-n-Snack, Praise Band, all sorts of social activities, he even eats lunch at the high school every week. Did you know that recently, he and Jennifer began a college Bible study in their home on Monday evenings!

Aren't you glad that God has sent Carson and Jennifer our way. I hope you will drop them a note in the mail or find some way to express your appreciation to them. In the meantime, pray for their safety and for God to continue the good work he is accomplishing in and through Carson and Jennifer.
